

THE DAILY HERALD.

"FIRST OF ALL, THE NEWS."

ISSUED EVERY DAY EXCEPT SUNDAY.

JESSE O. WHEELER, Editor and Prop.

Entered at the Postoffice, Brownsville, Texas, as second-class matter.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1892.

PIELA couldn't come it.

SENATOR MILLS is in Washington City.

DISPATCHES from the national capital was interesting.

TODAY the duty on corn was restored by the Mexican government.

MANY Texas journals are still engaged in fighting over the battle.

A SLIGHT shower rewarded the efforts of Dyrenforth's party last Friday.

DR. SCOTT, father-in-law of President Harrison, is extremely ill at the White House.

THE governor-elect and many of the other new state officials of Kansas are farmers.

THE San Antonio Express should have headed its editorials of Monday "Personal Items".

WHEN Mr. Mills gets tired of being senator, Governor, you and Horace may draw straws for it.

WE have heard of such a thing as the office seeking the man, but in these times it's a regular game of grab.

THE most truthful of his famous "Judge Waxey's" proverbs: Win him that air well treated at home most ain't hankerin' for votes.

THE San Antonio Express says; Jerusalem is now a railway station and has made the acquaintance of the leather sandwich. "The world do move."

THE rainmaking party at last accounts were somewhat disgusted with the refusal of J. Playins to open the flood gates in response to their thunderous rapping.

WHEN someone asked Mrs. Lease the other day if her election to the United States senate is possible, she replied: "With God and the farmers of Kansas all things are possible."

MR. Hoge has been re-elected governor, but as for the United States senatorship—well, his great tidal wave came out of her last crusade broken-winded, and refuses to bear him further.

THE pope has recently received from the converted savages of New Guinea a curious present consisting of three crowns made of feathers of the Upi birds. These crowns, united together, form a tiara.

NEW YORK WORLD: Perhaps Mr. Porter's Census Bureau can explain why it is that Ohio polls more votes than Illinois, and especially in a year when there was a light vote in Ohio and a full vote in Illinois. Can it be possible that Ohio was cheated out of her position as third State in the Union? Did Porter's men do some padding in Ohio?

HON. R. W. STAYTON, as a candidate for United States district attorney for the Western District of Texas ought to make a successful race. He is the right man for the place, and THE HERALD would rejoice to see him elected. He is a member of the noted law firm of "Wells, Stayton, and Kleberg," and has a fine reputation as a lawyer. In addition to this, "Bob" bears the right stamp as a democrat. Success, to you, friend Bob.

THE completion of Victoria's new court house was celebrated with a grand ball given by the chief contractor to Victoria society. This is one of the handsomest court houses in the state, its architectural styles being extremely beautiful. It is at once an ornament to Victoria and a credit to the enterprise of her people.

THE young man who goes west only to have himself and his belongings almost wiped off the face of the earth by a cyclone, probably comes to the conclusion that the great Greeley had better have tried his famous advice before bestowing it.

THE condition of Mr. Blaine is considered very critical by many. Nothing definite can be learned about his case, however, as his family refuses to talk about it, and his physician has also been instructed to say nothing on the subject.

Columbus Relics From Spain.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The department of state has received through the United States minister at Madrid a formal note from the duke of Veraguas granting the request of the president for the loan of the relics of Columbus in the possession of his descendants for exhibition at the world's fair. The duke in his letter says: "I feel truly gratified in stating, which statement I request you to communicate to the president that I place at his disposal the autographs and documents which I keep in my archives and portrait of the admiral—a copy of the one which exists in our national library and in my opinion of great probabilities of authenticity. Entrusting them to the care of the people and government of the United States, I am entirely sure that they will be guarded with an interest equal to that which I feel for these precious relics of the discoverer of the new world, and only regret that they are not more numerous and of greater value, in order to reciprocate the courtesy which you have extended to me."

A British Subject.

Boise City, Idaho, Nov. 27.—The Coeur d'Alene riots of last summer seem destined to be productive of international complications. One of the foreigners arrested in July by the military authorities for aiding and abetting the riots has prevailed upon his government to demand redress from the United States government. He is Alexander Ohlsholm of Warden a subject of Queen Victoria. He alleges that on July 15 he was, by order of Colonel Carlin of the Fourth infantry, arrested and thrown into prison, where he was compelled to remain until September 30 without examination or trial his protestations of British citizenship being unheeded. The British government has requested an explanation from this government and the authorities at Washington have asked Secretary of State Pinkham of Idaho for information.
